

Dialogue outline _updated 21 st April	Name mentioned here is proposal only, unless it is written (confirmed)
Title	JRP 2018 (Joint Response Plan) for FDMN (Forcibly Displaced Myanmar National) / Rohingya Humanitarian Crisis and Host Communities
Date, time and venue	12th May 2018, Saturday, 10.00 to 14.00 hours. 10 to 10.30 is networking and registration time, tea and coffee will be served. Uni Resort, Kolatoli, Coxsbazar
Organized by	Inter Sector Coordination Group (ISCG) and Coxsbazar CSO NGO Forum (CCNF)
Objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) Inform key government, local government, national NGOs and community leaders on the basic features of the 2018 Joint Response Plan (JRP) which is in implementation. (ii) Provide overview of the JRP theme and approach to addressing negative impact on host communities due to FDMN influx. (iii) Collecting feedback for improvisation and targeting of implementation and for future planning.
Participants	District officials of government agencies who are involved on this FDMN Response, Upazila Chairman, Upazlia Nirbahi Officers (UNO), ISCG Sector Coordinators, Representatives from INGO, National and Local NGO leaders, Donor/ Partner Representatives. By invitation only.
Chief Guest	Mr. Mohammad Abul Kalam, NDC, Additional Secretary, Refugee Relief and Repatriation Commissioner (RRRC)
Special Guest	Mr. Md. Kamal Hossen , Deputy Commissioner, Cox'sBazar
Panel Presenters	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Ms. Sumbul Rizvi, Senior Coordinator, ISCG 2. One senior Upazila Chairman (should be selected in cooperation with Director of LGs in DC office) 3. One senior Union Chairman (should be selected in cooperation with Director of LGs in DC Office) 4. One senior UNO (should be selected in cooperation with DC) 5. One UN agency representative who leads a sector (should be selected in cooperation with UN agencies) 6. One INGO representative who leads a sector (should be selected in cooperation with INGO forum) 7. One National NGO representative who leads a sector (should be selected in cooperation with National NGOs working in response)
Key note presentations	A summary of JRP 2018 and host community strategy in a slide presentation by a senior panel member. Presentation will be in English, but bangla translated hard copy will be distributed and sent to all the participants in advance. Apart from these ISCG and CCNF will prepare 2 page bangla briefs on each sector / theme which will be distributed in advance and available on websites.
Language medium	Both English and bangla will be used. There will be simultaneous translation from organizers.
Methodology/Agenda	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Brief welcome, including remarks from DC and RRRC, overview of objectives, ground rules, and introduction of guest and panel presenters from CSO-NGO Forum and ISCG (5 to 10 minutes). -key note presentation (maximum 15 minutes). - Participant's reflections (maximum 2 minutes each), after 2-3 participants panel member response. -Guests will be invited to give their reflections. -Written submission for feedback welcome. - Conclusion on behalf of organizers- Ms. Sumbul Rizvi and two moderators.
Practical arrangement and security	Led by Jahangir Alam (Jahangir.coast@gmail.com) of COAST the secretariat of CCNF, with the advice of Moqbul Ahmed the Member Secretary (moqbul.coast@gmail.com) of CCNF.
Press release	CCNF secretariat will give press release by 5 pm of 12 th May both in English and Bangla for media. This will also be published in all related websites.

Follow up	A brief report will be drafted from COAST on behalf of CCNF will be published 15 days after the seminar.
Moderation	Abu Morshed Chowdhury and Rezaul Karim Chowdhury Co Chairs CCNF
Websites	lscg website, www.cxb-cso-ngo.org and www.coastbd.net ,
All communication	Rhonda Goseen Rhonda.goseen@undp.org , mobile +8801701227519, Rezaul Karim Chowdhury, reza.coast@gmail.com , mobile +8801711529792