

MEETING TO ENSURE CHILD PROTECTION IN SCHOOL

With the slogan, 'If the children are not protected, a better nation will not be created" at 13 quality schools of Cox's Bazar have been completed the meeting on child protection. SMC members, teachers and guardian participated in every quality school. The total attendance was about 520.

All those issues are discussed in the meeting of the participants on the children will be protected from all kinds of deprivation, torture (physical and mental), and help their overall development through their rights. A child is born with his own rights after birth.

The Children is the future of the day. In the coming days, they will manage the country, will be a doctor and engineer, and serve the country. To protect the children, first of all, their parents have to be aware. Every participant has expressed their opinion at the meeting, from now they will be more aware and careful to their children.

The Children is the future of the day. In the

LINKAGE DEVELOPMENT MEETINGS WITH EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

If we can teach children, the country will be developed, the society will be develope

The local chairman, UP members, School teacher, members of the SMC, and the guardians participated in the meeting. Mr. Danu Mia, UP Member of the Chairman of Chowpoldandey Union said - COAST Trust also works with the dropout students who have been studying in the Bridge school for one year and again, admitted to mainstream schools and arranged coaching support for next one year. Mr. Abdur Rahim, former Chairman of Khurshakul Union, he said that "If we can teach children to make people like human beings, then the country will be developed, the society will be developed. He said that, protesting strongly to stop child labor.

81 members participated in the training from 12 unions. As a result of this training, the participants have learned about the importance of the leadership, characteristics of ideal leader, how to identify the service providers and the establishment of the services provider, And about the effective communication techniques. Participants expressed their opinion on that the leadership and communication training have increased their courage and skills now.

ANTI CORRUPTION COMMITTEE FORMED

SEEDS working area at three upazila office was held a Anti Corruption Committee formation meeting with different stockholders. The issues are discussed in the meeting on the objectives of the formation of Anti-Corruption Committees and their plans etc. Mr. Abdur Rahim said that in the meeting on corruption-related issues and each where enter speedy corruption by any able person as well were discussed. It is very big issue in our society; the members of this committee are much more responsibility and duties. To be a member of the Anti Corruption Committee, you have to change yourself. People should work for the people of the country, and for corruption free.

Everyone will be free from corruption. He further said that if we work together for justice, we can form a corruption-free country. With the consent of all participants of the meeting all positions are elected and 11-members Anti-Corruption Committee were formed in Cox's Bazar Sadar, Rama, and Pekua Upazila and they also set up some action plan.

Shahinul Quader Limon said that, the whole country is going on corruption, but for which reason nobody has received the steps to stop it. If we want to come forward with this honesty, then our country will be liberated from corruption.

FUNDRAISING AND SAVINGS MANAGEMENT TRAINING

A day-long training was held in 12 unions with the slogan of "A well savings makes a fair fund management". In this, meeting have participated 320 members from 12 unions. Through this training, the participants learnt about on, savings, type of savings, individual savings and group savings, the benefits of savings, fund management, transparency in fund management, how transparency can be ensured, how to increased a fund, the importance of opening bank account and Rules for opening bank accounts etc. Their knowledge about on those topics has increased. From now they can expressed their opinion on these issues of personal and group fund and that will solve the financial problems in a short time.

ADVOCACY TRAINING FOR SMC

A day long training & workshop was held on Advocacy and networking capacity building of SMC platform members at 3 upazilla's. With this training, SMCs can understand and realize that how to properly activated the SMC members and easy way of obtaining services from the stakeholders. Counseling in the training and why it is important, the type of advocacy, and the objections of advocacy, the networking key and why it is important, the networking techniques, public and non-governmental services provider With the training, they expressed the opinion that they would be able to work with the SMCs of different schools based on them to increase the quality of education and for activation of SMCs.